ISBN 978-1-84886-117-6

I Wish I'd Been Born a Unicorn has been very popular since its release in September 2014. In December it was named one of the best books of 2014 in a survey of UK children's booksellers by Books for Keeps and this summer it is being featured in the 2015 Record Breakers Summer Reading Challenge.

"I have had so much good news lately, it's been wonderful," said Rachel, 'I've been in touch with Edith and she was very kind, saying it's a wonderful story to read. I cannot wait to see it broadcast."

Rachel is a very proactive author: "I've been visiting schools all over the North West for World Book Week and I've got more visits coming up later this year. I'm very lucky to do what I do."

Rachel's first book The Cautionary Tale of the Childe of Hale was shortlisted for the Heart of Hawick Children's Book Award and she is currently working on her third rhyming story with Maverick Arts Publishing to be published 2016.
